Christmas card and 2021 calendar bulk buy deals

Despite the odd nature of 2020, some things remain constant. One of these is our need to make the most of the campaigning opportunities around Christmas. With many of us facing a condensed election campaign into May 2021, we need to make the most of every opportunity to communicate with our residents.

Christmas literature, typically a card and/or a calendar, is a good way to communicate with residents in a slightly less political way than we do through Focus leaflets, street letters etc. A warm greeting and seasonal message can help to temper the political overtones.

So, we have teamed up with Election Workshop again to offer cards and calendars through our autumn bulk-buy!

You can find out all the details of the deal and access the templates at tinyurl.com/aldcxmas or save some work by using ALDC Artworker.

Artworker is our online publishing platform that lets you design and print your leaflets in one go. It couldn’t be easier to use and also gives ALDC members access to some special deals.
