

Climate Change & Doughnut Economics in practice

Cllr Julian German

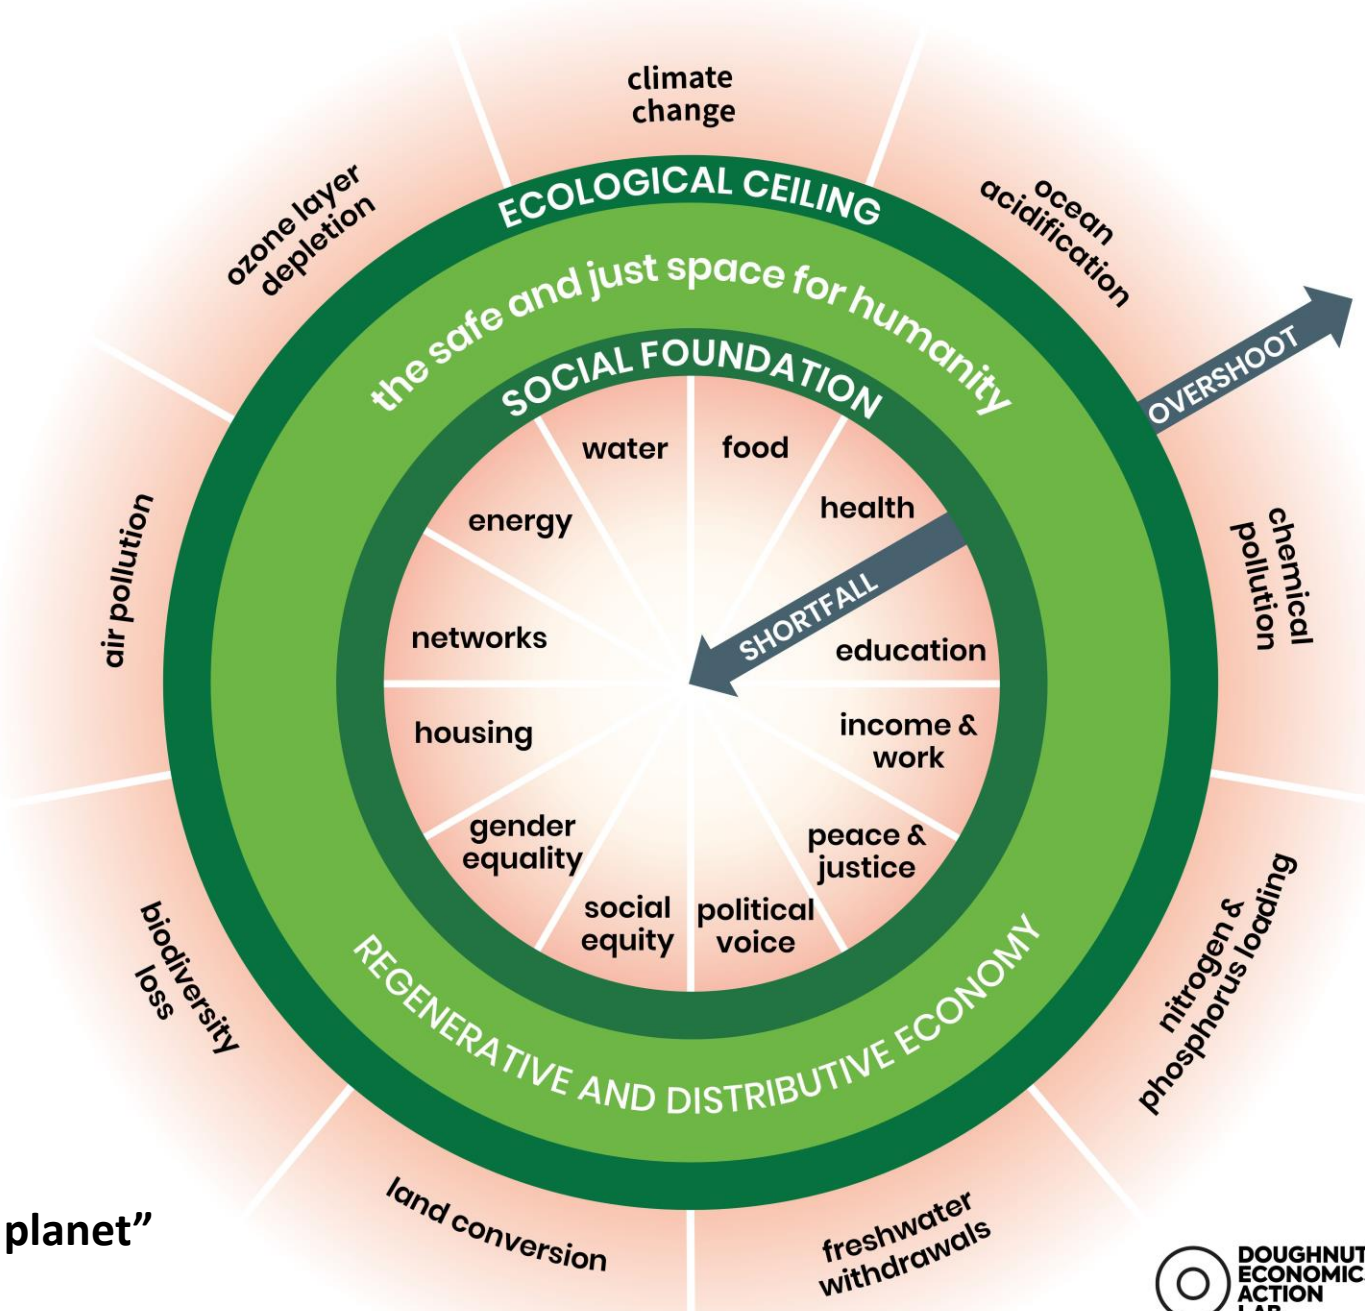

Chaired by Cllr Patricia Patterson-Vanegas

Climate change & Doughnut Economics in practice

- Welcome
- What is it & why is it important?
- Doughnut Economics @ Cornwall Council
- Q&A
- Close

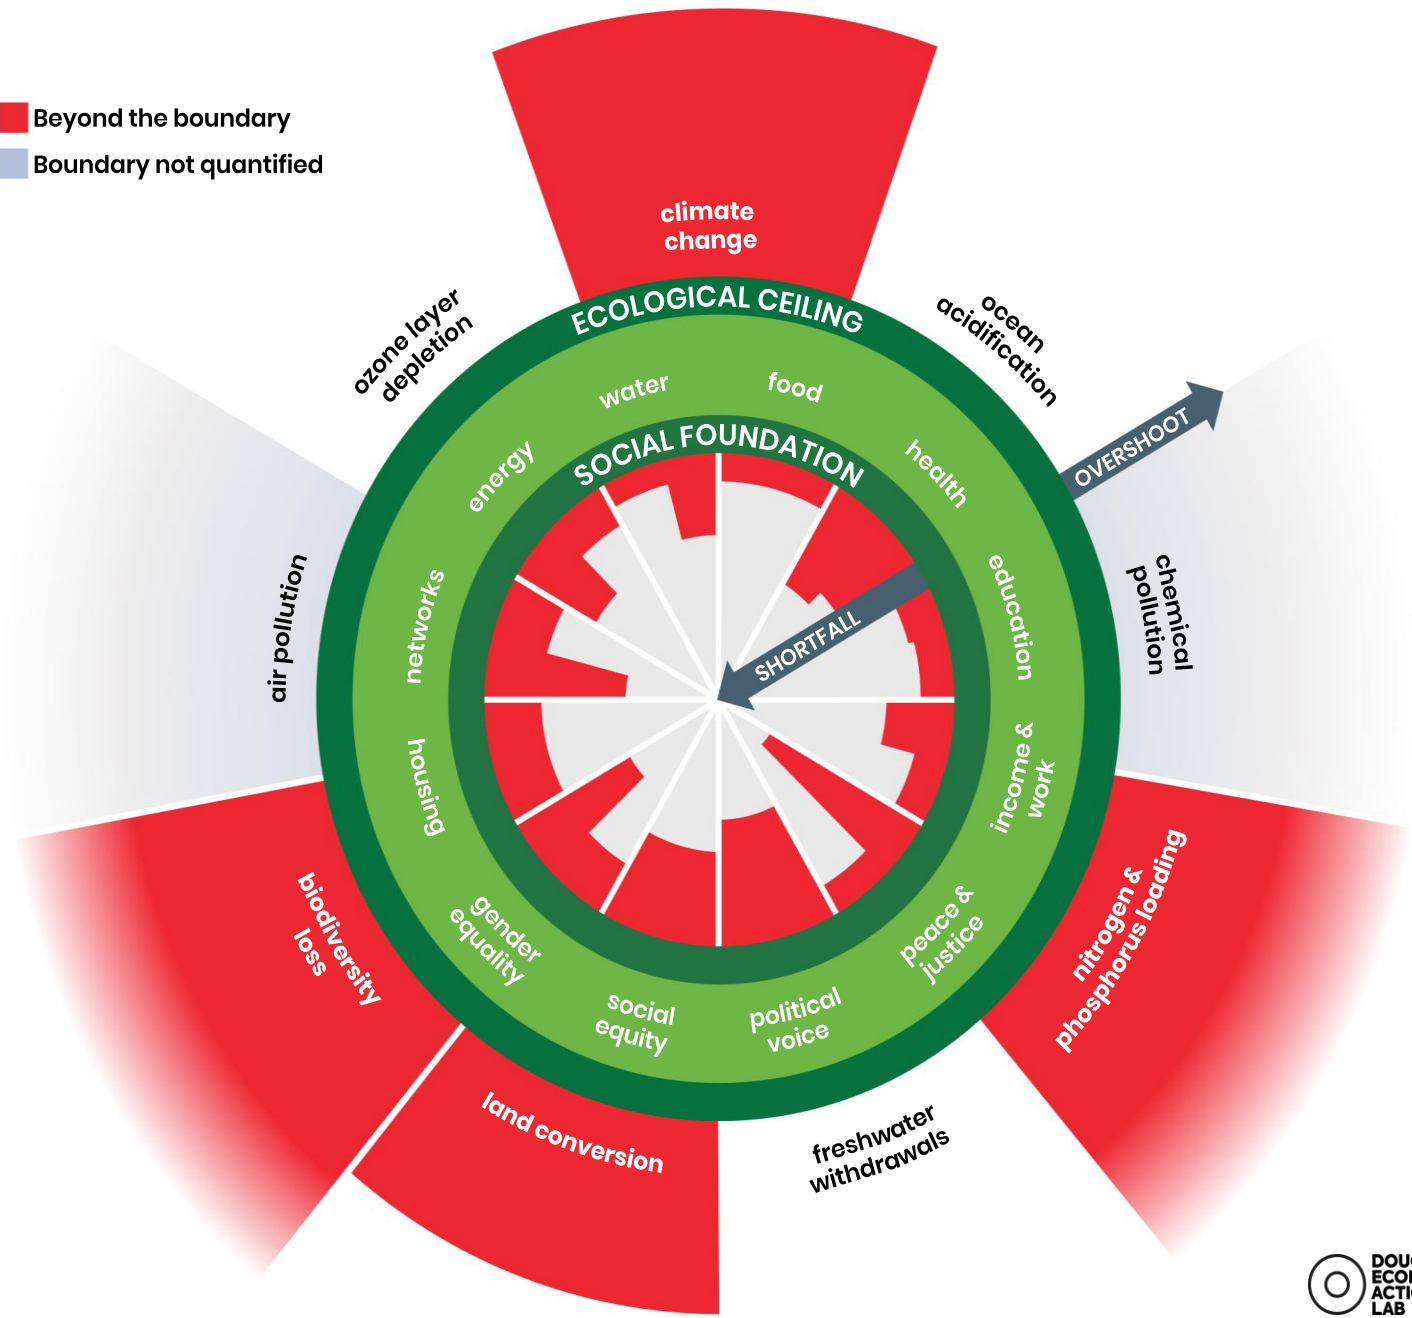

The Doughnut of social and planetary boundaries

“We need to meet the needs of all people within the needs of the planet”

■ Beyond the boundary
■ Boundary not quantified

A vision to

“Create regenerative and distributive economies that work within the planet’s ecological limits.”

Why is the Doughnut so important?

- Teamwork in her approach

Why is the Doughnut so important?

- Teamwork in her approach
- Biomimicry

Why is the Doughnut so important?

- Teamwork in her approach
- Biomimicry
- Re-evaluates Economics

Why is the Doughnut so important?

- Teamwork in her approach
- Biomimicry
- Re-evaluates Economics
- Internalises 'externalities'

Why is the Doughnut so important?

- Teamwork in her approach
- Biomimicry
- Re-evaluates Economics
- Internalises 'externalities'
- Changes the conversation!

Applied in many places...

Amsterdam • Australia • Barbados • Barcelona • Berlin •
Birmingham • Brasil • Brussels • California • Cambridge •
Copenhagen • Costa Rica • Curaçao • Devon • Dunedin • EU •
Glasgow • Ireland • Liverpool Leeds • London • Malaysia •
Nanaimo • Nord-Brabant • Melbourne...

CORNWALL COUNCIL

Leadership in Responding to the Climate Emergency Award (September 2021)

Climate change & Doughnut Economics in practice

- Welcome
- What is it & why is it important?
- Doughnut Economics @ Cornwall Council
- Q&A
- Closing thoughts

Climate change & Doughnut Economics in practice

- Welcome
- What is it & why is it important?
- Doughnut Economics @ Cornwall Council
- Q&A
- Closing thoughts

Climate change & Doughnut Economics in practice

- Welcome
- What is it & why is it important?
- Doughnut Economics @ Cornwall Council
- Q&A
- Closing thoughts