

Reading resources

In the first instance, councillors and officers are advised to speak to the council community safety team and/or local resilience forum coordinator.

Events

Forum for tackling anti-asylum activism - A special meeting of the Forum for tackling anti-asylum activism on Wednesday, 21 Aug, at 2-4. This will be focussed on the extremism and cohesion aspects of the disorder, but anyone from councils or statutory partners who would like to attend is welcome. Bookings are via Zainab.Khanom@local.gov.uk

LGA virtual event for Place Directors: Dealing with the summer violent disorder and extremist behaviour – Thursday 22 August, 11am-12pm

Who should attend: Place Directors/ Assistant Directors

Book now: <https://lgaevents.local.gov.uk/lga/2276/home>

Resilience

LGA guidance and case studies on civil resilience

LGA guide for councillors on civil emergencies

SOLACE guidance for chief executives on civil emergencies

NPSA \(National Protective Security Authority\) guidance on handling social media auditors

Hope not Hate guidance on responding to far right attacks – practical tips for local organisations

Hope not Hate guidance on Staying Safe Amidst Far Right Violence (on request)

Venues

The National Counter-Terrorism Security Office (NaCTSO) has suggested accessing their overall counter terrorism guidance which covers a number of themes including the protection of publicly accessible locations: Publicly accessible locations \(PALs\) guidance | ProtectUK

NaCTSO have also highlighted that there are local operational policing resources and designing out crime officers that may support this type of work locally and where councils have a relationship with local policing they should reach out to their contacts to request support.

New resource on ProtectUK that provides relevant counter terrorism protection advice and also supports protections against crime.

The police's National Business Crime Centre has guidance on safeguarding businesses against crime.

The NPSA website provides a more holistic approach across a range of security issues: National Protective Security Authority | NPSA https://www.npsa.gov.uk/

West End Security Group Toolkit

Addressing cohesion and extremism

Special Interest Group on Countering Extremism \(SIGCE\) - Knowledge Hub \(khub.net\)

Curious Minds and Collective Encounters - Resources for Anti-Racist and Trauma Informed Arts, Activism, Support and Information

Building stronger, more inclusive communities

Museums Association anti-racist museums programme

Breaking Boundaries - Youth Sport Trust – as part of this the Youth Sport Trust developed a resource that supported communities to build conversations and connections between each other using interactive games and energisers, called prompt cards.

LGA Cornerstones of Culture report

LGA guide to Reaching the less active

LGA communities hub

LGA case studies for sport, physical activity and leisure

LGA case studies for culture, heritage, and creativity

Websites

LGA response to riots and disorder

CLOA statement on the recent riots

Museums Association statement

Libraries Connected

Belong: the cohesion and integration network

Sport for development coalition

Contact: cts@local.gov.uk