Suitable for councils and other organisations using surveillance and CCTV systems.

14 August 2018

CCTV cameras have become a part of our everyday lives, we go about our business largely unaware of them. They can serve as a valuable tool for security, crime prevention and detection.

However, capturing a person's movements on camera is intrusive, and, as you'd expect, subject to strict data protection and human rights laws. Councils are also reminded that they have a statutory duty under the Protection of Freedoms Act to
